- A. The Republic of Kafiristan
- B. The mascot of the 2012 London Olympics
- C. A 3-year-old's depiction of the Cookie Monster
- D. The 2009 Cycle Oregon route

OK, you've got us. You've figured out our 2009 route. Well, except for the pesky little details, like host towns. And where in Oregon. But we'll give you one more hint: north is up. Now we've given the fanatics enough to start digging out their maps. The rest of you can just mark down February 5 on your calendar. Because that's when we hold our annual Kickoff Party, where we fill in all the blanks on the route – and open up registration. That's an important thing to note, because last year all 2,000 spots sold out in just four weeks. And this year we're going somewhere we've never been, which means a completely original adventure for every one of our riders. This year you should be one of them.

2009 Kickoff Party: February 5, Tiger Woods Center, Nike Campus. Doors Open 6 pm; Route Announcement 7 pm; Registration Opens 7:45 pm. Event Dates: Sept. 12-19. Call 503-287-0405 or visit www.cycleoregon.com for more information.
